

COVID-19 TEST CENTERS AT FRANKFURT AIRPORT

FOR FLIGHTS BOUND FOR CHINA MAINLAND Version 1.1

As of 16th November 2020, Lufthansa in cooperation with Fraport and Centogene offers three test centers at Frankfurt Airport:

- two test centers offer a PCR test and an IgM antibody test which are mandatory for flights bound for China Mainland
- one test center is located in the international transit area (Concourse Z) to guarantee smooth travel – no Schengen visa needed.

TEST FACILITIES AT FRANKFURT AIRPORT

Test Center	Location	Hours	Offered Covid-19 Tests
Medical Center	Terminal 1   Concourse A   Arrivals	07:00 – 14:00	✓ PCR and IgM antibody
Transit Area Non-Schengen	Terminal 1   Concourse Z   Gate Z 12	11:00 – 14:00	✓ PCR and IgM antibody
Centogene Squire	Terminal 1   Next to Train Station	06:00 – 19:00	✓ PCR

PLAN YOUR TRANSFER

- Plan a layover of at least 8 hours at Frankfurt Airport to allow sufficient time to obtain the required Covid-19 test certificates and health codes from the Chinese Embassy in Germany.
- Pre-book and pre-pay for the two Covid-19 tests (PCR and IgM antibody) individually:

- Passengers transferring from a domestic flight in Germany are asked to take the tests in their origin city within 48 hours before boarding their long-haul flight bound for China Mainland.

AT FRANKFURT AIRPORT

- Immediately upon arrival, go directly to a Covid-19 test center to take the tests:
  - Medical Center (Terminal 1 | Concourse A | Arrivals) or
  - Transit Area Non-Schengen (Terminal 1 | Concourse Z | Gate Z 12).Both test centers accept the PCR test and IgM antibody test pre-bookings and will conduct both tests in the same session.
- Test certificates are normally available within 6 hours after sampling.
- While waiting for the Covid-19 test certificates, scan the QR codes and begin registration for the Green HS Code (Chinese Citizens) or Green HDC Code (Non-Chinese Citizens).
- Upload the Covid-19 test certificates immediately upon receipt for verification by the Chinese Embassy in Germany. Once the Chinese Embassy has approved the application, your HS Code (Chinese Citizens) or HDC Code (Non-Chinese Citizens) will turn green.
